

CIVIL SOCIETY ORGANISATION WEEK 2018

Dates: 22nd - 26th October 2018 | Venue: Dodoma, Tanzania

LETTER OF INVITATION

Foundation for Civil Society (FCS) and in collaboration with other Civil Society Organizations in Tanzania have organized the CSO Week 2018 from 22nd – 26th October 2018 in Dodoma. The event is expected to bring together about 300-400 CSOs across the county and other Partners to engage with a number of Key Stakeholders such as relevant Government Ministries, Departments and Agencies, Parliamentarians, Development Partners, etc.

The following are the highlights for the CSO Week 2018:

□ Conference Sessions:

A number of topics have been planned to enable participants to fully benefit from a bouquet of experiences, best practices, trends, etc., from experts in different sectors. There will be plenary sessions and breakout session that enrich the program and support knowledge and skills sharing.

Participants are encouraged to choose themes that are of interest to them and their organizations so as to build the capability and sustainability of their organizations.

□ Exhibitions:

There will be a special opportunity for about 150 CSOs and partners who wish to showcase their work, publications, documentaries, case studies, etc., tents with booths will be subsidized at half the cost to support a number of CSOs to join the exhibitions.

□ Social Networking:

Every evening there will be time for Participants to meet, interact and build linkages across the board. Some of the special events are Culture Nite, Team Building Activities and Gala Dinner to close the week. Such occasions provide individuals and organizations time to catch-up, network and reenergize in a very informal manner.
